2025 Boys & Girls State Booster Book Fundraiser

The American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary, nonprofit organizations dedicated to veterans, host a week-long leadership program at a local college campus. This program is designed to give students an in-depth look at the political process, from local to state offices. Students from all over Connecticut are divided into fictional political parties and assigned to towns and cities where they elect local officers. From there, they move on to organize their state political parties and choose candidates for state office. Participants also write and debate their bills, craft speeches, and develop public speaking skills. Many program alumni have attended military academies and pursued successful political careers. Notable former students include Lt. Governor Susan Bysiewicz, State Senator Mae Flexer, U.S. Senator Chris Murphy, and President Bill Clinton.

This program relies on the generosity of donors and volunteers to succeed. The cost per delegate is over $550, covering insurance, tuition, and supplies. We are seeking your support to help these bright young students. The booster book will be distributed to every student's parent from across Connecticut and all our members at the annual conventions in July.

This booster book will support the Connecticut Boys & Girls State Program.
